7. Participation Fees;

7.1. Space renting price is calculated based on 1 m² as one unit. This price includes following:
7.1.1. Renting of the empty space

7.1.2. Interior and exterior lighting of the exhibition area

7.1.3. Security of the exhibition and general cleaning services (cleaning of the interior of stand is the responsibility of the exhibitor)

7.1.4. Building of information office, media pavilion, meeting point and other common areas
7.1.5. Internal announcement system, first aid services

7.1.6. Promotion and announcement of the exhibition
7.1.7. 2 car park cards and a participation certificate to each exhibitor

7.1.8. Publication and distribution of any kind of publication related to participation in the exhibition
7.1.9. Organization of the exhibition containing each detail,

7.2. The smallest space that can be rented is 12 m². Smaller spaces can be rented only when the layout plan becomes definite and suitable spaces come out. Exhibitors rent the spaces as "empty spaces". Exhibitors can choose among stand choices offered by ANFAS and rent a stand for a fee. Exhibitors also may agree with an architecture office and have a special stand built.

8. Payments;

8.1. Payment should be made to ANFAS account stated below in cash within 15 days following the date of signing the contract by the exhibitor.

9. Space Application

9.1. The exhibitor shall completely and fully fill and sign the space application contract form prepared by the exhibition organizer and declare that general terms of participation are accepted regarding the participation to the relevant exhibition or fair.

9.2. It is not possible to request for a space by means other than contract form. In special cases, the exhibition organizer reserves the right not to accept an exhibition participation request, to allocate a smaller space than m² requested by the exhibitor, to change the space allocated and to terminate the stand area allocated without the right to indemnity.

9.3. The information requested in the contract form should be filled completely and fully. The exhibition organizer reserves the right to reject a commodity or a service that is not stated or declared in the contract form without any commitment for loss.

10. Acceptance

10.1. ANFAS reserves the right not to accept an application.

10.2. Unless an exhibitor delivers us the original contract and payment documents and unless the payment is deposited to our bank account, ANFAS can not be held responsible for not delivering the space allocated by this contract to the exhibitor and ANFAS can not be forced to perform the obligations stated in the contract. The space remains in senior option for 15 days. It can be sold to a different company at the end of this 15 days period. After a delay for 15 days, a different space will be allocated to the company that delivers its documents or effectuates its payment. Allocating the space to another company doesn't prevent the exhibitor from fulfilling its payment obligations arising out of this contract. ANFAS may demand and collect all of the contract value in cash and at once without the need for a notification or warning.

10.3. An exhibitor accepting to participate in the exhibition or fair by signing the document of terms of participation can not withdraw from participation and has to fulfill its obligations after this signature.

10.4. Without prejudice to the rights of ANFAS stated in article 10.2 of this contract; the EXHIBITOR that signs the contract with the aim of participating in the exhibition is evaluated only after the payment is effectuated.

10.5. The exhibitors that haven't fulfilled their material obligations or that have breached terms of participation can be deprived of the right to participate.
10.6. If the space allocated to the exhibitor is not suitable for reasons beyond control, then the exhibitor can request for the reimbursement of space renting price but can not request indemnification.

11. Additional Exhibitors and Group Stands

11.1. If the exhibitors shall exhibit the products of a third company in their own stands with the permission and approval of that third company, then they have to report these sub-exhibitors to ANFAS in writing.
11.2. There should be an organic relation between the sub-exhibitors and the main exhibitor (contract owner) within the frame of commercial contracts such as representation, distributorship, dealership or as a group of companies.

11.3. In the event that a commercial relation can not be documented, each sub-exhibitor or Main Exhibitor has to pay a participation price in the amount of EURO 250 to ANFAS in exchange of invoice.

11.4. ANFAS is obliged to inform the main exhibitor that the sub-exhibitor and brand that has been declared by the main exhibitor has been approved.

11.5. ANFAS is obliged to publish each sub-exhibitor and brand declared and approved in its web site among the exhibitors and to allocate a promotional page in the catalogue.

11.6. Exhibitors can not allow third parties (or companies) use the stand areas allocated to themselves completely or partially, for a fee or free of charge without the written consent of ANFAS.
11.7. The products and companies that haven't been stated on the information form can not be promoted or advertised on the stand.

11.8. Sub-exhibitor is responsible for the same terms and condition as the main exhibitor.

11.9. The main exhibitor is the common debtor and guarantor to exhibition participation price that the additional exhibitor should pay.

11.10. If a sub-exhibitor participates in the exhibition without the consent of ANFAS, then ANFAS becomes entitled to terminate the contract with the main exhibitor without any notification and to empty the stand to the disadvantage of the main exhibitor. The main exhibitor can not request any indemnification.

11.11. Sectoral group stands, collective participation association stands and national participations that are in line with the general standing of the exhibition may be allowed.

11.12. If a stand has been allocated to two or more companies, each company is jointly and severally responsible for complying with terms of participation against ANFAS.

11.13. In the event that the main exhibitor doesn't participate in the exhibition, this also brings along the automatic termination of the acceptance of the additional exhibitor.

11.14. In group participations, the invoice against the participation fee can only issued to the Main Exhibitor that is the owner of the contract. It is not possible to invoice a part of the participation fee of the main exhibitor to the indirect exhibitors.

12. Cancellations

12.1. Exhibition organizer(s) is/are entitled to change the date of exhibition or cancel the exhibition in circumstances that are beyond their control (force majeure) without being subject to any claim for indemnification by the exhibitor. None of the exhibitors can change or terminate the contract ex-parte.

12.2. In the case that the exhibitor doesn't participate in the exhibition due to any reason in spite of the fact that this contract has been signed, the exhibitor has to pay the price determined by the contract.

12.3. If it is determined by two employees of ANFAS with minutes that the exhibitor has acted against this contract and that the exhibitor didn't participate in the exhibition, these minutes are definite evidence under the scope of article 287 of HUMK (Code of 12.4. If the exhibitor participates in the exhibition for a shorter term than what has been planned, exhibitor can not request a discount from the participation fee.

12.5. In cancellation requests by contract owner, organizer reserves the right to request cancellation indemnification.

12.5.1. This indemnification amount shall be;
12.5.2. 25 % of stand renting price if the contract has been cancelled on a date more than 4 months before the exhibition organization,

12.5.3. 50 % of stand renting price if the contract has been cancelled on a date less than 4 months before the exhibition organization,

12.5.4. 75 % of stand renting price if the contract has been cancelled on a date less than 3 months before the exhibition organization,

12.5.5. 100% of stand renting price plus VAT if the contract has been cancelled on a date less than 2 months before the exhibition date.

13. Exhibitor Entrance Cards

13.1. Each exhibitor shall be given ten (10) exhibitor cards free of charge. One exhibitor entrance card shall be given free of charge for each 15 m² (on condition that total number doesn't exceed 40).

13.2. Free exhibitor entrance cards shall be officially issued only for the exhibitor and stand officers and representatives of the exhibitor. In the event of illegal usage, cards shall be taken back not to be replaced by new ones.

13.3. For VIP Customers of institutions, it is possible to issue VIP Cards by sharing the information of the customers.

14. Printed and Online Invitations and Professional Visitor Control

14.1. ANFAS has a certain amount of Exhibition Invitation printed and distributed to exhibitors so that Anfas Hotel Equipment exhibition is announced especially to sector members and that sector member professional visitors are invited to the exhibition.

14.2. Professional visitors can also obtain online invitations from the web site of the exhibition.

14.3. Entrance fee is collected from sector professionals that come to visit the exhibition with exhibition invitation.

14.4. However, sector professionals that come to the exhibition with the exhibition invitation shall be requested to present their identity cards together with business or promotion card of their organization. The persons that do not present their business or company id card and official identity card together with their invitations or the persons whose names do not match with the records shall not be accepted even in exchange of a certain fee.

14.5. The persons that come to visit the exhibition without online or printed invitation can visit the exhibition after presenting their business cards, sectoral identities and official identity cards and after paying the entrance fee.

14.6. Exhibitors can not print invitations without the permission of ANFAS. In the event of unauthorized invitation printing, ANFAS doesn't assume any responsibility.

15. Exhibition Catalogue

15.1. ANFAS is obliged to prepare and publish exhibition catalogue. Each exhibitor can take its place in the Catalogue with its company name, logo, contact information and a short introduction letter.

15.2. The exhibitor can not bring forward any claim of right for wrong, deficient or missed information

15.3. ANFAS doesn't assume any responsibility for the contents of the information and for the errors that might occur during printing for reason beyond its control.

15.4. Exhibitors can also take their place in the catalogue with an advertisement page for a certain fee stated on the front page.

16. Publication of E-Bulletin and Advertisement Opportunities

16.1. ANFAS publishes Turkish (domestically) and English (internationally) exhibition e-bulletins in order to carry out the announcement of Anfas Hotel Equipment exhibition efficiently.

16.2. Participation of each exhibitor is announced in the exhibitors list by means of these e-bulletins.

16.3. Exhibitors can introduce themselves by means of banner advertisement in Turkish or English e-bulletins which will redirect the visitors to those exhibitors' web sites.

16.4. One time banner advertisement tariff is EURO 100. For more than one banner advertisement, information and promotion contract can be requested from sales representatives.

16.5. The price for the banner that will remain in our web site for 15 days is EURO 150. Information and promotion contract can be requested from sales representatives for banner advertisements that might remain in the web site for a longer time.

17. Other Promotion Publications

17.1. ANFAS may prepare exhibition gazette, brochure, CD or other publications that it deems necessary in order to promote the exhibition before, during and after the exhibition. ANFAS reserves the freedom whether to open these publications to the advertisements of exhibitors or not. In the event that ANFAS opens these publications to the advertisement of exhibitors, only the companies that are the exhibitors of the exhibition can give advertisements.

18. Scope of Exhibition Insurance

18.1. ANFAS has insured the halls in which exhibitions shall be held in general. The risks under the scope of this insurance are natural disasters, fire, leakage and floods. However this insurance doesn't cover the commodity exhibited by the exhibitors.

28.1. Starting from the entrance to the exhibition area and until the end of exits, ANFAS has full authority in the exhibition area.

28.2. ANFAS reserves the right to give any kind of instruction and to change, terminate and renew the instructions especially in administrative respect.

28.3. Pets are not allowed in the exhibition area.

28.4. ANFAS reserves the right to record exhibitor stands, activities, plans and product exhibits by means of photographs, video camera or drawings and to use these media for advertisements and press bulletins without any right in the part of exhibitor to appeal.

28.5. The same terms are valid for the photographs taken by press with the permission of ANFAS.

28.6. Exhibitor company has to assign at least one of the employees as stand officer that is qualified to provide technical and commercial information during exhibition hours.

29. Force Majeure

29.1. Whole or some part of the exhibition organization to be organized by ANFAS may become impossible as a result of unexpected legal reasons or the decisions to be taken by official authorities or wars, campaign, strike, anarchy, insurrection, epidemics, quarantine, earthquake, flood, natural disasters, etc. In the event that one of the abovementioned events occurs before the exhibition commencement date, the whole exhibition organization shall be held on a date to be designated by ANFAS in equal stand areas and for equal durations.

29.2. In the event that one of these events occurs between the exhibition starting and ending dates, ANFAS doesn't assume any material or legal responsibility.

30. Other Provisions

30.1. The persons under 16 years of age are not allowed to enter the exhibition area even if they are 1st degree relatives of the exhibitors and visitors.

30.2. Exhibition organizer or organizers reserve the right not to receive in the exhibition area, to close the stand, to cease all of the services provided, not to let the products exhibited and to act without any obligation to pay indemnity against the persons that do not comply with the general terms of participation, that disturb the peace of the exhibition, that make additions to the stand area or that bring and exhibit unwanted materials, without a need for any decision or obligation from the court.

30.3. Technical infrastructure services and the regulations pertaining to the organization details that are not stated in this contract shall be implemented as stated in exhibitor hand book.

30.4. In the event that the exhibitors violate any intellectual right or copyright of third parties that have participated or not in the exhibition due to any title, product, brand or service that they shall use in the space allocated to them or in any other place, they shall be responsible for this action.

30.5. All of the objections by the exhibitors should be brought within one month following the month in which the exhibition was held.

30.6. ANFAS reserves the right to or not to organize draws for the visitors.

30.7. In the event of a difference of comment due to translation in English contract, Turkish text shall be binding.

30.8. In the conflicts that might arise from this contract; the exhibitor acknowledges and declares that books and computer records of ANFAS shall be valid, binding and definite and that he/she waives from any right to appeal and refutation and also from oath rights on the subject that the books of ANFAS have been kept suitably. ANFAS company records and commercial registers are exclusive evidence as per article 287 of HUMK and they can not be replaced by any other evidence.
